Headteacher: Mrs Sarah Chappell

We hope you enjoy a lovely Easter break with your families and look forward to seeing you on Tuesday 16th April.

New Books

Thanks to all your purchases at the Book Fair we received some commission to buy some new books for our library.

This, together with your donations on World Book Day, meant that we were able to purchase £250 worth of books. We have bought lots of sets of books for our guided reading groups. Thank you

There will be another book fair later in the year, in November, just in time for Christmas!!

Schools Will Rock You

This week we were invited to take some of our Year 5 children to Barlby High to watch the dress rehearsal of their production of 'Schools Will Rock You'.

The children really enjoyed seeing the cast (which included several former pupils of Hemingbrough CP) tread the boards and rock!

Safety Theme Day

Today the whole school has been learning about safety in lots of different ways. Classes have looked at e-safety, road safety and stranger danger. If you can, please chat to your child about the things they have learned.
